

WOMAN BURNED TO DEATH BY EXPLOSION

Pain as her flesh had burned so long that there was no chance for pain in the charred parts of her body. She was in a semi-conscious condition all of the time even up to the moment of her death. She mumbled something constantly but her tongue had been swollen by the heat and she was unable to speak distinctly. She asked for her husband several times after being taken to the hospital and recognized her parents when they came there, but did not appear to suffer any. She died at half past ten yesterday morning.

This awful accident puts an end to one of the brightest lives in the city. Mrs. Kohler had been married but eleven months. She was the daughter of John Tiffin, a clerk in the office of Tapp Bros. and Henshaw. She was born in Illinois sixteen years ago, but has lived in this city the greater part of her life. She was educated in this city and has hundreds of friends who were saddened by the news of her untimely death. "She was of such cheerful disposition," they said, "and her death will sadly mark the happiness of the social circle of which she was a member."

The funeral will be held this morning at 9 o'clock from Gill's undertaking rooms. Interment will be in Highland cemetery. Mr. Kohler has lived in this city many years. For a number of years he lived with his two sisters and a brother on Blaine avenue, but after his marriage moved on the West side to a short time ago when he moved into the house with his mother. He was employed as clerk in the Santa Fe freight office and was a steady and efficient employee.

His hands are very nicely turned, but they will not have to be amputated as was reported on the streets yesterday. They will be slightly deformed. His face was scorched on the face and arms. Mrs. John Tiffin was prostrated by the shock of her daughter's death and is now in a serious condition at her home in the Franklin block. She has been in bed since the accident and there are but slight hopes for her recovery.

Lockjaw From Cobwebs.
Cobwebs get on a nut later with a woman lockjaw. Millions know that the best thing to put on a nut is Buckle's Arnica Salve, the infallible healer of Wounds, Ulcers, Sores, Skin Eruptions, Burns, Scalds and Piles. It cures or no pay. Only 25c at Gehring's pharmacy.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

WILL BE BANNER ATTRACTION.

On Monday evening next what is regarded as the banner attraction of the season is booked for the Crawford when the famous Wilbur-Kirwin company will enter upon an engagement of one week. While new to this city, the Wilbur-Kirwin company needs no introduction to amusement lovers. It was the first organization in America to produce opera at popular prices. For twenty-one years it and its companion organization, the Wilbur-Kirwin company have toured the country with universal success and with the unique distinction of playing fifty-two weeks a year, summer and winter alike. The unique feature of the organization, which cannot be claimed by any other theatrical venture in America is the fact that during the entire life of over a quarter of a century it has ever remained under the management of its founder, A. L. Wilbur, the originator of the idea of opera at popular prices. In the management Mr. Wilbur finds an able aid in Miss Marie Kirwin, who has been so long at the head of the company that her name is a by-word in the homes throughout the communities where the attraction is best known. The opening bill will be "Jack and the Beanstalk," an extravaganza dealing with characters that carry the spectator back to childhood's halcyon days in the nursery. Nor does that imply that it is a childish affair. "Jack and the Beanstalk" ran for three solid years in New York, Boston and Chicago, delighting tens of thousands of people with its scenic investment, its gorgeous costumes, dancing, singing, musical effects and brilliant electrical and mechanical effects. Jack, the powerful destroyer of giants will be seen, together with Mother Hubbard, Mary Quite Contrary, the famous living blackbird and a score of characters from Mother Goose. From the Arabian Nights the Red Sea has been removed as a running mate for Jack. The adventures of this pair in their recent up the made beautiful in one of the goings that laid the golden eggs constitute a vehicle for a world of clean fun, interpolated with musical music. A spirit of dash and ginger pervades the entire performance. There was one production of "Jack and the Beanstalk" built and only one. This is the property of the Wilbur-Kirwin company and will be produced Monday as staged in New York during its long run.

During the balance of the week a repertoire of operas will be given; the operas to be announced later. Matinees have been arranged for Wednesday and Saturday, with a new attraction. This will be announced in Miss Kirwin can be induced to give it. The company comes under a guarantee, arranged through a subscription and matinee. This will be a new one and will continue until 5 p. m. Monday. It has already reached large proportions and promises to be very heavy.

TWO QUEER WOMEN.

Parties Concerned in Stroud Murder Case are Taken to Chandler.

Guthrie, O. T. March 14.—John H. Chandler and Joseph Chandler, who were arrested at Gainesville, Texas, for the murder of Ruth Corrine Stroud, an 18-month-old child, at Stroud, have been taken to Chandler. They were brought there from Texas without a requisition and placed them in the Lincoln county jail to await a hearing.

Concerning the matter, the Chandler Tribune says:

The old woman claims to have been born near Little Rock, Arkansas, and to have had for a husband a man who was a Confederate soldier. He died a few months ago and she received the money that he died as having a death as any man ever died.

The younger woman has, according to her own story, had two husbands, one of whom is still living. Her child was 14 months old.

As shown by the coroner's inquest, held last week, the women stopped off the train at Stroud something like two weeks ago and accompanied by a man named Brown. Soon after they had gone to their room in the evening the younger woman went down stairs and asked for a glass of water. She then returned to the room the child was in and the child screaming. On going up stairs she found the door locked, but after repeated knocking succeeded in getting entrance.

The child was in a room and the women apparently unconcerned. The mother took it off the bed and laid it on the floor. The child was asked if it did not want a drink and they then placed it on the floor. The child was then found dead. The child was found dead at 11 p. m. The women stopped off a day in Chandler; the old woman begging on the streets. At every place where the women stopped they were being.

Monday morning the women were arrested before justice of the Peace A. R. Marsh, and were committed to the Lincoln county jail. They were held to await the tion of the grand jury without bail, on the charge of murder.

The old woman is somewhat talkative, but the younger one talks but very little. From their talk they have been guilty all over the west. In the justice office the old woman said: "If the death of the child was all I had to answer for, I would fly right into heaven without any trouble." The younger woman said: "I would not be here if I had not been guilty."

GREAT FUTURE FOR BLACKWELL.

Gas Attraction Means Much to That Oklahoma Town.

Outhrie, O. T., March 14.—The following are the prophetic words of Robert A. Neff, on the Blackwell gas strike:

The gas problem is now settled. Blackwell has natural gas in an extensive quantity. The strike has been settled. The gas is a genuine asset. It is much more than a depth of about 20 feet. The gas from this well is sold in ten times as much as the gas from well No. 2. Everybody is feeling jubilant, and they have just come to no feet. It means much for Blackwell. It settles the problem of cheap fuel and light. It means much for the future of the town. It means that with natural gas, freight and passenger dividends, the strawboard paper mill, the white-belt house and other industries that will be here within the year, Blackwell is destined to become the most progressive city in Oklahoma.

Democracy Will Determine Government's Attitude Toward Boers.

Washington, March 14.—Representative Randall of Texas, today circulated among his Democratic colleagues of the house a petition for a caucus of Democratic members to consider what course should be adopted in relation to the government's attitude toward the Boers. The petition was addressed to Representative Hay, chairman of the Democratic caucus and named March 15 as the time for the gathering. The signatures were very general on the Democratic side of the house, and the caucus probably will be held, although no call has been yet issued.
